

Swan Creek Rowing Club

Articles of Incorporation

(as amended on March 25, 2010)

Article 1 Organization

- This organization shall be known as the Swan Creek Rowing Club, Inc. hereafter known as SCRC.
- The organization may change its name with a majority vote of the membership.

Article 2 Membership

Section 1. General

- A member in good standing is a member who agrees to abide by the SCRC Constitution and Articles of Incorporation and whose dues are paid in full.
- All members must complete annually a membership application, a club waiver, and (if 18 or older) a self-certification of ability to swim.
- New members must complete novice proficiency in the basic skills checklist.
- For all members under the age of eighteen (18), the membership application and club waiver must be signed by a legal guardian.
- For all members under the age of eighteen (18), swim certification must be completed by a recognized authority (i.e. Red Cross, YM/WCA, school program)
- Membership is not transferable.
- SCRC reserves the right of just cause to remove a member from its rolls after due process set forth in Article 10 of these Articles of Incorporation.

Section 2. Categories

The membership of this organization shall consist of the following categories:

- Individual membership: for an individual over the age of eighteen (18) not a full-time student.
- Household membership: for anyone otherwise qualified to be an individual member and sharing in the economy of a single household with the holder of an individual membership.
- Student membership: for any individual attending school full time.
- Coxswain/coach membership: for individuals who provide coxswain or coach duties exclusively.

Section 3. Members under the age of 18

- All members under the age of 18 must go through the SCRC Instruction Program, pass the Basic Skills Test, and provide certification of passing a basic swimming test.

- A member under the age of 18 may only row with adult supervision (on the water) unless he/she demonstrates a measure of skill, maturity, common sense and foresight – then the Advanced Skills checklist will be completed and signed by the student, their parent, coach and authorized by the Board designating such youth to “Advanced Status.” Advanced Status youth may row without adult supervision but shall always row with at least one other person who may be another Advanced Status Youth.
- All members under the age of 13 must have a SCRC member sponsor. This sponsor shall be the student’s parent or legal guardian, or individual approved, in writing, by the parent or legal guardian. If the under 13 student is rowing, the sponsor must be rowing with the student. The sponsor shall ensure that the student follows proper SCRC procedures. The student must wear a PFD (provided by the student). If club boats are used, the student shall use the novice single or team boats only.

Section 4. Membership Ceiling

A membership ceiling (a limitation on the total number of members) may be established by the Board of Directors if, in their opinion, the number of boats available to members will not support additional membership and/or when the facilities of the club will not support additional membership.

Article 3 Membership Meetings

- Notice of the membership meetings and agenda shall be sent by electronic or US Postal mail to each member no less than 14 days in advance of the meeting date.
- The order of business for each meeting shall be as defined in the SCRC Constitution.
- Meeting minutes from all membership meetings shall be distributed to each member via electronic mail.

Article 4 Voting

- At membership meetings, motions will be voted on according to the rules of order where majority rules. Votes will be taken vocally by members unless the president of SCRC requests a “silent” or “written vote”.
- A membership quorum will be defined as no less than 20% of the membership.
- New officers and Board members shall be elected per Article 9 of these Articles of Incorporation.

Article 5 Board of Directors

Section 1. Authority

- The Board of Directors membership is specified in the SCRC Constitution.

- The affairs of the SCRC shall be conducted under the supervision of the Board of Directors in such a manner and under such conditions as to carry out the purposes. To that end the Board of Directors is empowered to:
 - a) Set SCRC rules and policies
 - b) Approve SCRC budget items
 - c) Hire, evaluate, and dismiss any service provider
 - d) Establish standing or ad hoc committees, as needed
 - e) Approve delegates to regional and national meetings of the US Rowing Association
 - f) Revise and amend the Articles of Incorporation, the Constitution and any SCRC guideline for operations, with a membership vote for approval.

Section 2. Notice

All SCRC communications will be made available to each member via electronic mail and the SCRC website.

Section 3. Removal from Office

- Any member of the Board, an officer of SCRC, or a member of a committee may be removed by a two-thirds vote of the Board, if the member does not meet defined expectations of service or club membership duties.
- No vote on removal shall take place before the person whose removal is sought is given ten days written notice of the vote.
- Any Board member who is absent from scheduled meeting without notice for two consecutive meetings shall be deemed to have resigned.

Article 6 Officers

The officers of the SCRC shall be those enumerated in the Constitution and shall take office after the close of voting and the adjournment of the fall Membership meeting.

The President shall:

- a) Preside at all meetings
- b) Be Chairperson of the Board of Directors
- c) Administer Board functions
- d) Coordinate all club activities

The Vice-President shall:

- a) In the absence or inability of the President to serve, assume the powers of that Office
- b) Serve as chairperson of the Board of Directors

- c) Serve as, or appoint a Boat Captain who shall be responsible for or delegate any work for repairs and maintenance of the fleet and equipment which includes:
 - Establish standards for the care and use of the club fleet and equipment.
 - Allocate space on racks for winter/summer storage.
 - Investigate charges of gross negligence towards club equipment or consistent violation of club standards, with right of appeal to the Board of Directors as set forth in Article 10 of the Articles of Incorporation.

The Secretary shall:

- a) Be responsible for preparing complete and accurate minutes of the meetings.
- b) Distribute draft meeting minutes of Board meetings to all Board members and prepare revised minutes for final approval at the next Board meeting.
- c) Distribute approved meeting minutes of membership meetings to all members via email
- d) Coordinate the planning, preparation and operation of elections and voting.
- e) Review, coordinate and maintain all club correspondence.
- f) Maintain membership data base.

The Treasurer shall:

- a) Maintain an accounting of all club financial accounts and activities.
- b) Plan and coordinate for club responsibilities for tax preparation, auditing and review.
- c) Participate in club budget planning activities and advise the board and designated committees on matters related to the budget, financial policies and procedures.
- d) Prepare a detailed report of SCRC financial activities for distribution to all members at membership meetings and be included in distributed meeting minutes.

Article 7 Rowing Season

The Rowing season shall be from May 1 to November 15, subject to change by the Board of Directors in response to weather, site and boat conditions.

Article 8 Dues Schedule

- Membership renewal dues and joining dues are set annually by the Board and posted on the website on the membership application.
- Every member in the same membership category and time of joining the club shall pay the same amount in dues and shall receive the same club privileges.
- Dues are non-refundable. Members with a specific hardship may submit written request to the SCRC President for consideration of refund of dues.
- Specific membership rules are outlined in the SCRC Rules and Regulations.

Article 9 Elections

Section 1. Time and Manner

Elections for SCRC Officers and Board of Directors shall be held at the annual fall membership meeting.

Section 2. Nominations

- The Nominating Committee shall be chaired by the Board Secretary or their appointee.
- The Nominating Committee shall open nominations at least 2 months before the elections.
- Nominations shall be submitted to the Nominating Committee.
- Any person nominated to hold office must be a member in good standing of SCRC and accept nomination in writing.
- The Nominating Committee shall prepare the ballot and notify all members of the ballot via electronic mail or postal mail no less than 21 days prior to the membership meeting.

Section 3. Voting Procedures to Elect the Board of Directors

- Voting for officers and the Board shall be made by completion of the ballot. Each SCRC member will have one vote.
- Ballots may be mailed or emailed to the nominating committee chairperson prior to the scheduled membership meeting or brought to the fall membership meeting for counting.
- The Ballots shall be counted at the membership meeting by 3 SCRC members that are not on the current Board of Directors, on the ballot, or have any bias towards the candidates.
- All members shall be notified of the election results in the subsequent SCRC meeting minutes.

Article 10 Misconduct and Grievance

Section 1. Member Misconduct

- A member may forfeit membership for cause, including but not limited to, the following:
 - a) Failure to follow established club safety rules
 - b) Egregious irresponsibility with club equipment
 - c) Failure to report damage made to club equipment
 - d) Any violation of established club rules and regulations.
- The President shall notify the member accused of such misconduct in writing.
- From the date of notice, the member shall have two weeks in which to provide a written response to the charges. Failure to meet this deadline shall result in forfeit of club membership.

- Within ten days from the receipt of the member's response the Board shall hold a hearing to review the individual's membership status. The member will not be present for this review.
- The president will notify the member in writing of the outcome of the Board review.
- If the member disagrees with the decision of the Board, the member shall have the opportunity to appeal to the membership at the next membership meeting. During the appeal period, the member's privileges shall be suspended.

Section 2. Penalties

The Board may assess any or all of the following penalties :

- a) Reprimand: A written, public or private communication expressing disapproval of the member's action.
- b) Probation: A ruling for a specified period of time limiting the member's activities within the organization.
- c) Expulsion: The right to remove said member(s) from the rolls of the club with no financial remuneration.
- d) Other: The Board may seek other relief as it deems necessary (e.g., a letter of apology or restitution for damaged club equipment) but may not impose monetary fines as part of the penalty.

Article 11 Amendments

- Alterations and amendments of these Articles of Incorporation may be offered by a SCRC member or by recommendation of the Board of Directors and voted on by the membership at a membership meeting.
- Changes shall be proposed in writing and submitted to the secretary for distribution to the club members prior to a membership meeting.
- Amendments shall be voted on per Article 4.

Article 12 Indemnification

Consistent with the provisions of the laws under which this organization is incorporated, this organization may adopt provisions providing indemnification for each person who, by reason of the fact that such person is or was a Board member, officer, employee, agent, or other member of any committee of this organization, was or is threatened to be made a party to any threatened, pending, or completed civil, criminal, administrative, arbitration, or investigative proceeding.
